Our 20th year Anniversary Conference and Celebration of Concordia Seminars will include workshops on issues such as immigration, substance abuse, youth and gangs, and depression. Various artist will also take the stage and express through their artistic works.

The keynote speaker for the event is Rene Saucedo, Executive Director of the San Francisco Day Labor Program. Ms. Saucedo is a long time community activist, and expert in the field of immigration issues. The workshop presentations includes updates on immigration law, mental health and substance abuse issues, trends of Hispanic gangs, and issues facing Latino LGBT communities.

Featured artists include percussionist Sal Nuñez, Salvadorian inspirational traditional folk singer Anita Bonilla, performer artist Marc Pinate and other cultural artists.

Concordia is the result of an active partnership between the SFDPH Community Behavioral Health Services and many San Francisco community based organizations that serve Latino clients.

For 20 years Concordia has provided an opportunity for continuing education, networking, and support for culturally and linguistically appropriate services to many health, mental health and community services providers. Through monthly seminars and occasional larger conferences we have worked with hundreds of people over the years. These participants have, in turn, provided their expertise, energy and vision to thousands of Latino and Spanish speaking clients, youth, elders, etc. 🇺🇸
