

Art of Community:

Creating Sustainable Culture Through Cooperation

Occidental CA, Sept. 23rd - 25th

Join representatives from many types of intentional communities (ecovillages, cohousing, urban coop houses, student coops, etc.), community organizers, and people interested in the basic principles of living "in community" with intention, for a unique opportunity to connect around the values and practices of living in cooperative culture as a cornerstone of creating resilient communities.

Nestled in the coastal redwoods north of the Bay Area, Art of Community will be a rich mix of skill building, interactive and educational activities, celebration, and a place to share ideas, knowledge, skills, and stories.

Kevin Danaher - Global Exchange • Diana Leafe Christian – author of Creating a Life Together
 Janelle Orsi – Sustainable Economies Law Center ... and many more inspiring presenters
