The Alameda County Peace and Freedom Party and Movement presents

The Legacy of Stalin

Few figures in the history of socialism have generated more controversy than Joseph Stalin, so we are sure that this month's topic will generate a lively discussion. Our discussion will begin with different perspectives from our confirmed speakers, including: Alan Benjamin, Labor activist, Editor, The Organizer newspaper; and Eugene Ruyle, of the ICSS at the Niebyl Proctor Marxist Library. Presentations will represent the views of speakers. Organizations are listed for identification purposes only. Open discussion will follow.

Sat, June 1, 2013 • 2pm-4:30pm
