

August 8th, 2007

One Year Countdown to the Beijing 2008 Olympics
One Year Countdown to Freedom for Tibet

Please join us for a march and rally in downtown San Francisco on August 8th to take part in an International Day of Action in support of Tibet!

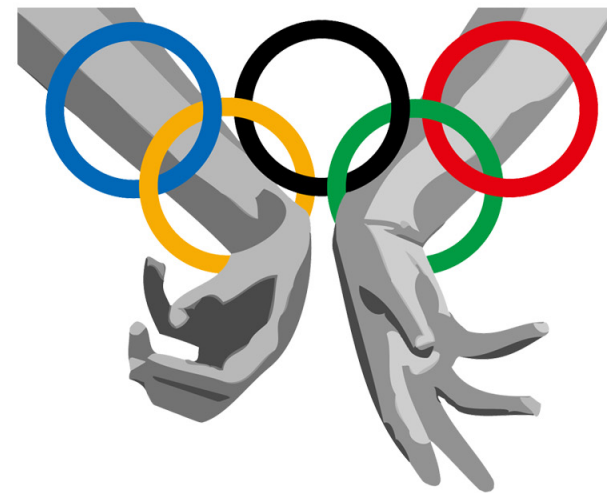

August 8th marks the One Year Countdown to the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games. This is a symbolic moment for the Chinese government to promote its propaganda and mask the reality of life on the ground inside China and Tibet.

The Chinese government is using the Games to gain international approval for their cruel occupation of Tibet. San Francisco is the only US city hosting the Olympic torch, a symbol now tainted with genocide and repression, on its way to Beijing. Meanwhile, the Mayor of SF has said human rights are irrelevant to the Games. We would like to tell him otherwise as we join Tibetans and supporters to help expose China's Olympics lies and bring the message of Free Tibet 2008 to Chinese Embassies and Consulates worldwide.

August 8th Schedule 11:00am Meet at SF Civic Center BART station at UN Plaza gate
11:30am March to SF City Hall
12:30pm March to SF Chinese Consulate (Geary & Laguna)
1:30pm Press conference at SF Chinese Consulate
3:00pm End. Thank you!

FREE TIBET
Beijing 2008

find out more at sfteamtibet.org

August 8th, 2007

One Year Countdown to the Beijing 2008 Olympics
One Year Countdown to Freedom for Tibet

Please join us for a march and rally in downtown San Francisco on August 8th to take part in an International Day of Action in support of Tibet!

August 8th marks the One Year Countdown to the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games. This is a symbolic moment for the Chinese government to promote its propaganda and mask the reality of life on the ground inside China and Tibet.

The Chinese government is using the Games to gain international approval for their cruel occupation of Tibet. San Francisco is the only US city hosting the Olympic torch, a symbol now tainted with genocide and repression, on its way to Beijing. Meanwhile, the Mayor of SF has said human rights are irrelevant to the Games. We would like to tell him otherwise as we join Tibetans and supporters to help expose China's Olympics lies and bring the message of Free Tibet 2008 to Chinese Embassies and Consulates worldwide.

August 8th Schedule 11:00am Meet at SF Civic Center BART station at UN Plaza gate
11:30am March to SF City Hall
12:30pm March to SF Chinese Consulate (Geary & Laguna)
1:30pm Press conference at SF Chinese Consulate
3:00pm End. Thank you!

FREE TIBET
Beijing 2008

find out more at sfteamtibet.org