

Strike

With uc workers

IT'S BEEN TEN MONTHS! We've negotiated. We've bargained. We've demonstrated. Yet STILL the UC Executives refuse to recognize UC workers as the backbone of the UC. Now the people who feed us, clean our dorms and classrooms, drive us to class, maintain campus buildings, and keep the campus grounds looking beautiful have united and said, "Ya Basta!" A strike will turn the table on the University and show how essential these workers are, but the strength of it relies on student support. Here are ways for students to stand in solidarity with the workers strike on June 4th and June 5th ...

DOs

- DO go to the picket line on June 4th and June 5th
- DO spread the word!
- DO make announcements in your classes!
- DO compel your TAs and Professors to move or cancel class
- DO bring food for the picket potluck!

DON'Ts

- DON'T cross the picket line!
- DON'T go to class
- DON'T go to your University Job!
- DON'T eat at Dining Halls, University Cafés, Stores, etc.
