‘The Living Wisdom of Howard Thurman’

Join us to learn about the life and legacy of an inspiring mystic and visionary!

Howard Thurman was a guide and mentor for Dr. King and many other leaders of the Civil Rights Movement. His work speaks directly to today's personal and social issues, highlighting the powerful connection between spirituality and social transformation.

This session will feature excerpts from the video "Conversations with Howard Thurman."

A ten-week class on Dr. Thurman will begin on Feb. 3rd, and meet Thursday nights 7-10PM.

Presenter: Dr. Liza J. Rankow is an interfaith minister and the founding director of OneLife Institute. She regularly teaches classes on Thurman in community and academic settings, and is co-editor of the six-CD audio collection, "The Living Wisdom of Howard Thurman."
