

From NYC to Ferguson to Oakland

IMANI HENRY SPEAKS ON NATIONWIDE STRUGGLE AGAINST POLICE TERROR

ALSO HEAR GLORIA VERDIEU of the SAN DIEGO COMMITTEE AGAINST POLICE BRUTALITY

Saturday, 1/31 @ 6:30pm

at the Alan Blueford Center 4 Justice, 2434 Telegraph Ave, Oakland

Imani Keith Henry is a longtime activist in the anti-police brutality, anti-war and LGBTQ movements in the US. He is an organizer with The Peoples Power Assembly, which helped to coordinate emergency day of/day after actions in NYC and nationally in response to the Ferguson grand jury decision. Imani has travelled to Ferguson, MO twice and most recently took part in a 36-person civil disobedience action on December 4th in response to the Garner grand jury decision.

He is also the founder of The Equality for Flatbush Project \(E4F\), which does grassroots anti-police repression, affordable housing and anti-gentrification organizing in the East Flatbush and Flatbush communities of Brooklyn, NY.

His writing has appeared in several publications including the Lambda award winning Does Your Mama Know (Red Bone Press), Voices Rising: Celebrating 20 years of Black LGBT Writing (Other Countries) and Marxism, Reparations and the Black Freedom Struggle, (World View Forum Publishing) and the newly released, Against Equality: Prisons Will Not Protect You, (Against Equality Publishing).

Under the brand, OD For the People, Imani is an Organizational Development Consultant and Diversity Trainer who provides change management services specifically for nonprofits and universities. Imani has a Masters in Social Work from New York University's Silver School of Social Work and a Masters in Public Administration from The Wagner School of Public Service. Follow Imani on Twitter @imanihenry

Refreshments will be provided, wheelchair accessible, a few blocks from 19th St BART

Presented by Workers World Party

1305 Franklin, #411, Oakland 510-600-5800 Workers.org