

OUR REVOLUTION

Organizing Kickoff

Sponsored by Progressive Democrats of America – San Francisco

On August 24, Bernie Sanders will present a livestream address to the national network of volunteers who brought him close to victory in the recent Democratic primaries. His talk will present “Our Revolution,” the nationwide organization that grew out of that amazing campaign.

At this kickoff event, Bernie and others will describe how we can get to work fighting for the political revolution through November and beyond, and lay out some of the next steps we can take as a movement to empower a wave of progressive candidates this November. They will also talk about how we can become key movement builders in our communities.
