

6-Week Public Reading Circle

Queer Resistance – A Historic Legacy

The history of the LGBTQIA+ movement is one of defiance and provides lessons for today. Readings will look at queer roles in ancient societies, fights against religious taboos in medieval times, the burgeoning LGBTQIA+ liberation movements in the industrial era, leadership of queer workers, and the current battles against the right-wing backlash. All are welcome. $3-6 donation per session.

Wednesdays: July 5, 12, 19, 26, August 2, 9, 7:00-8:30pm

New Valencia Hall, 747 Polk St., San Francisco (near Ellis St.)
